Electrical Details

- Standard household 120 VAC outlet required in the area of the track header.
- Elevator runs on battery power. The batteries are continuously charged by a 2 amp smart battery charger.
- Telephone line connection required in the area of the track header. A telephone is provided inside the elevator.
- Flush mounted remote hall station controls are provided for each landing. They are wireless, no wiring required. Also, a key fob control is provided.

